WOMEN AND CHILDREN PROTECTION CENTER

Accomplishment Report for 2014

A. Services:

The Women & Children Protection Center (WCPC) has served 49 cases of children in Need of Special Protection (CNSP) and Women in Especially Difficult Circumstances (WEDC) from January to December 2014. There are thirty six (36) new admission and thirteen retained cases for previous years. These are the victims of different forms of abuses. Rape is the most numbered of cases followed by incest, victims of human trafficking, WEDC and neglected. There are two (2) cases of adoption. One (1) is already cleared for inter-country adoption legal documents are still on process.

Among forty nine (49) residents served, thirty two (32) were discharged and successfully integrated to their family and community, some are referred to DOJ while two (2) of them were referred at different centers. The office conducted (35) case conferences with our counterpart PNP, local DSWD, Dep Ed., Brgy. Officials, and families/relatives of the victim to ensure best interest of the child. There are 12 cases of abuse violation of RA 8353 and RA 7610 is now on trial. The social worker assisted them to follow-up of cases, prepared supporting documents for their board of claims, escorted them in court hearings, and coordinated prosecutors who are handling the case.
